Didim is the most favorite of country's tourism; continues to create difference with its rich cultural heritage, unique coasts and beaches, fresh air and cultural texture.

CITY OF SEERS

Didim, one of 12 Ionian cities, Miletos took its place in the stage of history as "Sacred City" or "Worship Place" under the name of Didyma. This geography being home to Ionians, Persians, Seleucid, Pergamons, Romans, Byzantines and Turks witnesses countless historical events and culture. Didim, established years ago and become motherland of civilization, has evolved into one of the most significant tourism centers of Turkey today by showing a great progress during the last fifty years of this century.

TEMPLE OF APOLLO

Miletos, one of the most developed cities in terms trade, culture, art and philosophy whereas Didim of modern day was a religious location under the government of Miletos. Temple of Apollo established here served as a sacred place for people of different districts to pray, consecrate, organize festival and races and most importantly to foresee their future, find solution to their problems.

ANCIENT CITY AND MUSUEM OF MİLETOS

Once the greatest city of Ionia, Miletos was a seaport and commercial center in 7th century B.C. At this city established almost four thousand years ago many prominent figures of philosophy and history such as Thales, Anaximanes, Anaximandros and Isidoros maintained their lives.

The city having a bright era under the reign of Menthesa during 13th century then entered into the domination of Ottoman Empire.

Many historical remains found at and about the ancient city is exhibited at Museum of Miletos.
